BLANC DE BLANCS BRUT

Sparkling Wine

WINE ENTHUSIAST

M A G A Z I N E

This traditional method sparkling wine represents a fantastic value. It has a fresh, zesty lemon aroma that is accompanied by notes of pineapple, straw, and coconut. A tangy bit of acidity accompanies its grapefruit, honeycomb and toasted filbert flavors. The bubbles are frisky, the mouthfeel clean. Nicely done.

SEAN P. SULLIVAN
NORTHWEST WINE REPORT

The aromas offer notes of lemon peel, pear, flower, and a kiss of orange rind. The palate is textured, brisk, bubbly, and fresh. What it lacks in seriousness it makes up for in straight enjoyment.

OWEN BARGREEN

This delivers oyster shell and nutmeg drenched French bread on the nose alongside suggestions of Japanese pear. This takes on the rich mousse with a beautiful sense of effervescence. The palate is fresh and fleshy with a terrific mouthfeel. This is seriously delicious stuff.
